The Proper Course

Information of Priceless Value to Every Lexington Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of Lexington citizens who have been permanently cured?

John P. Rhodes, S. Main St., Lexington, Va., says: "I shall always speak well of Doan's Kidney Pills, as I know them to be a reliable remedy.
Off and on for some time I suffered from a heavy ache across the small of my back which was always intensified when I did any stooping or lifting. I also had trouble with the kidney secretions, the passages being too frequent. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Gorrell's drug store, took them as directed and received prompt relief. I gave a statement to this effect in 1903 and at this time, (Nov. 25, 1907) I am glad to reiterate everything I then said. I have appealed to Doan's Kidney Pills on many occasions since and the results have been entirely satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Cures Blood and Skin Diseases Eczema, Greatest Blood Purifier Free

If your blood is impure, thin, diseased, hot or full of humors, if you have blood poison, cancer, carbuncles, eating sores, scrofula, eczema, itching, rising and bumps, swellings or suppurating sores, scabby, pimply skin, ulcers, bone pains, catarrh, rheumatism, or any blood or skin disease, take Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.). Soon all sores heal, aches and pains stop and the Blood is made pure and rich. Druggists or by express $1 per large bottle.

vised for chronic, deep-seated cases of blood or skin diseases, as it cures after all else fails. Nov. 20-07 -yr Turkey hens are profitable until five years old but it is a good plan to change the gobblers every year. It requires twenty-eight days to hatch a turkey egg, and seven eggs are considered a setting. The nests should be on the ground.—From June Farm Journal.

Everyone would be benefited by taking Foley's Urino-Laxative for constipation, stomach and liver trouble, as it sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels and is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. Why not try Foley's Urino-Laxative today? B. H. Gorrell.

My method for keeping lice from troubling the poultry at night, is to suspend the roosting poles by wires from the rafters of the house. If the poles are smooth, the lice will not remain on them if they are there at all.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatment. Do not experiment with untried remedies as delay may result in your cold settling on your lungs. B. H. Gorrell.

Some folks think that hens do not need oyster-shells when they can run out. Just try giving them some and see how that is. You will be wiser after that.

Foley's Honey and Tar is especially recommended for chronic throat and lung troubles and many sufferers from bronchitis, asthma and consumption have found comfort and relief, by using Foley's Honey and Tar. B. H. Gorrell.

When you go to bed at night, sweep your mind clear of everything and go to sleep. Failures, hopes, dreams, everything; let all go and rest up for the day that is coming.

To avoid serious results take Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of kidney or bladder disorder such as backache, urinary irregularities, exhaustion, and you will soon be well. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy today.
B. H. Gorrell.

Hens feel the warm weather as much as other folk. Give them a shady place to sit down once in a while and rest.
They will do all the better for it.

Cures dizzy spells, tired feelings, stomach and liver troubles, keeps you well all summer. That's what Holister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. Try it and you will always buy it. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. B. H. Gorrell.

Cut out some of the really unnecessary household work and take some time out-of-doors with the children, and thus renew your youth.

Pronounced by millions the greatest strength maker, appetite builder and health restorer. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you feel that life is worth living. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. B. H. Gorrell.

As every chick hatched carries the blood of the male, it is important that great care be taken in selecting the head of the flock.

Tying her bonnet under her chin.

Then to the store she went with glee,

What is prettier than a bunch of thrifty chicks, all of one color and breed, and as much alike as so many peas.

Rush the broilers along. The quicker you can get them on the market the better for you.

Many of our citizens are drifting towards Bright's disease by neglecting symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble which Foley's Kidney Remedy will quickly cure. B. H. Gorrell.

WOMEN OF VALAIS.

They Dress Like Men and Do Manual Labor in the Fields.

Among the curious communities of the world that of Valais, a beautiful canton of Switzerland, certainly ranks as one of the most peculiar and interesting. It provides a delightful picture of topsy turvy-dom. From time immemorial the women have worn the "broeks" and performed the manual labor of the fields, while their lords and masters lounged their days away in ease.

What is more, the women are quite content with this inverted order of things and are perfectly satisfied if their husbands brew the herbs, fry the meat and look after the baby, while they wrestle with the sterner duties of the field and stable.

And not only do the women of Valais wear trousers for convenience when working in the field or tramping after cattle, but also on Sundays and fete days. "They have better looking ones for these occasions, I must confess," says Miss Van der Veer in the Wide World Magazine, "but they have no hankering for the trammels of skirts even during their courting hours. I was highly amused at seeing the pretty girls sauntering along the picturesque trails with their sweethearts' arms around their waists, looking to the casual stranger for all the world like two young men gone 'loony'."

"One can scarcely imagine a wedding party with bride and bridegroom dressed in the same kind of garments, but I have seen one in the mountains, when the bride wore a white bodice, white trousers and a bunch of white violets in her hair!
She was as pretty as a picture, too, despite the attire, and quite as blushing and shy as any bride out of a convent."

"The working day trousers are of the homemade variety and by no means becoming. Often they are so long and baggy that they seem almost as cumbersome as skirts would be. The most amusing part about this working costume is that the upper part remains feminine, being the ordinary rough bodice of the peasant woman, often in bright colors of red or blue."

"And in spite of their familiarity with trousers the women of Valais do not walk or sit in a masculine manner. Any one can see at a glance that they are women in men's clothes. They always sit sideways on horseback and get over fences by first mounting to the top rail and sliding down, woman fashion, instead of striding over, man fashion."

"Another feminine absurdity is the wearing of a long sort of toga, which trails down their backs and gets in the way whenever they bend over or go through the tangles of the mountain wood."

"Why don't you wear a cap or small felt hat like the men?" I asked an old woman once.

"We have always covered our heads so," was her explanation—an explanation, in her opinion, that was all sufficient. Peasants from one generation to another do everything simply because their forefathers did the same."

"Thrashing the Men."

They had pretty ways of keeping Shrove-tide in the good old times.
There was the game of "thrashing the hen." And this is how Hilman, the antiquary, speaks of it: "The hen is hung at a fellow's back, who has also some horse bells about him.
The rest of the fellows are blinded and have boughs in their hands, with which they chase this fellow and his hen. But the maids are to blind the fellows, which they do with their aprons, and the cunning baggages will endeavor their sweethearts with a peep-hole. After this a store of pancakes is made, and she that is noted for lying abed long hath the first pancake presented to her."—London Chronicle.

A Tip From the Gallery.

Mrs. Kendal was once playing at Dublin, the role being Galatea.
Pygmalion, it will be remembered, has that not unusual domestic accessory, a jealous wife. During the temporary absence of the wife Galatea was about to throw herself into the arms of Pygmalion when an old lady in the audience called out warningly:

"Don't do it, darling! His wife's just gone out, an' it'll be like her to be stoppin' at the keyhole!"

Ancient Medical College.

While it is customary to credit Hippocrates, the Greek physician, with being the father of medicine, discoveries of recent years have revealed the fact that the healing art flourished as a profession in far earlier times than we have any record of it in the history of Greece. Physicians were plentiful in the Egypt of 1800 B. C., and there is evidence to show that a medical college existed in Borsippa, a suburb of Babylon, even before the latter date.

Unsympathetic Brute.

Mrs. Malaprop—Young Sharp will have to apologize before I'll speak to him again.

Miss Interest—Did he insult you?
Mrs. Malaprop—Did he! The last time I met him I told him that my uncle, Lord de Style, had locomotive attacks, and he had the impudence to ask if he "whistled at crossings." He's an unsympathetic brute.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Since January 1 there has been one divorce for every four marriages in Los Angeles county, Cal., the ratio in 1908 being one to six.

In a speech at Howard University, President Taft advised the negroes to strive to win the friendship and respect of the Southern people.

Rev. Dr. Selden A. Lloyd of New York was elected Coadjutor-Bishop of Virginia at the Episcopal Diocesan Convention held at Leesburg last week.

Protection on manufactured cotton goods was demanded of Congress in a series of resolutions adopted by an overwhelming vote by the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association at its closing session in Richmond last week.

Dr. Long, who has been stigmatized by Mr. Roosevelt as a "nature faker" says that Mr. Roosevelt is "a game butcher pure and simple, and his interest in animals lies chiefly in the direction of blood, butchery and brutality."

A dispatch from Roanoke says more than two miles of track of the Virginia Anthracite Railway were washed out, bridges were damaged and the Merrimac coal mines, near Blacksburg, were flooded by a cloudburst a few days ago. The storm at Blacksburg was the heaviest for many years.

A move is to be made in Lynchburg, to break up the sale of hard cider in the city and warrants will be issued against every retailer there. The Anti-saloon League, which will ask for the enforcement of the Byrd law, as its attorney construes it, will fight for a conviction in each case, instead of consenting to a test case.

The board of supervisors of Augusta County have acted favorably on petitions to macadamize parts of three roads of the county —those leading from Staunton to Greenville, to Mount Solon, and to Spring Hill. One will be let to contract and two worked with convicts. All will be paid for out of regular county levy with private subscriptions. The combined distance is over twenty miles.

Petersburg in the local option election last Thursday gave a "wet" majority of 578 in a total vote of 1,792. The overwhelming majority for the "wets", it is believed, shows the strength of Harry St. George Tucker for governor. Tucker is liberal in his views on the liquor question, while Judge Mann, though declaring for local option, has been recognized as one of the strongest opponents of the saloon in Virginia.

Tidewater Virginia bitterly resents the speech of Judge Mann, denouncing the Jamestown Exposition as a failure. The local governors, being a majority, met in Norfolk and issued a statement in which they exonerate Mr.
Tucker completely of any responsibility in the management of the exposition and deny that it has not valuable assets, which may pay all debts. They call attention to Judge Mann's failure to attend the exposition, and accuse him of lack of information on the whole subject.

A joint committee of the two bodies of the city council of Roanoke to which the matter of a bond issue had been referred, have voted in favor of the issue, and a re-amount be $800,000 will be made to the council. The bonds will run thirty years and bear 4 per cent, the proceeds to be devoted to streets, sewers, fire department, city market, police and municipal departments. Streets will be given $300,000, while $335,000 will be appropriated for a new police station, jail and municipal building.

A remarkable burial occurred in the channel of Hampton Roads, off Sewalls Point, last week, when the ashes of a former Confederate soldier, who recently died in Seattle, Wash., were lowered into the water in a tiny silver casket in which they were sent from Seattle, first to Richmond and then to Old Point Comfort, by direction of the deceased. The burial was made by W. H. Fitzgerald of Richmond, by whose side the deceased Seattle man fought in the United States Artillery of Norfolk, at Sewalls Point, during the Civil War. The identity of the deceased has not been revealed.

Bristol was chosen as the next place of meeting by the Virginia Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, at the meeting in Newport News last Thursday night. The old officials were re-elected as follows: Grand chancellor, Rev. John Hal-
